RUSH MEMORIAL HOSPITAL FOUNDATION

One family's philanthropic vision helped sustain Rush Memorial Hospital.

Your vision can ensure the future of Rush Memorial Hospital.

Kenny & Selma Earnest

The Purple Oak Society is named in honor of Mr. Kenneth L. and Mrs. Selma Earnest, who believed in the need and future of a hospital in Rushville, Indiana. They moved their home across Main Street so that the present hospital facility could be built in 1950. Throughout the expansion of the hospital, the Earnests have been eager to support through charitable gifts. Even in their passing they have left a philanthropic legacy for the future growth of Rush Memorial Hospital.

Purple Oak Society

The Rush Memorial Hospital Foundation's Purple Oak Society honors individuals and families who have established Rush Memorial Hospital as a planned gift beneficiary.

You are invited to become a member of the Purple Oak Society by naming the Rush Memorial Hospital Foundation in your estate planning. Gift types include:

- Bequests
- Beneficiary Designation
- Charitable Annuity
- Life Insurance Policy Designation

Benefits to Purple Oak Members

The Purple Oak Society offers an opportunity to be recognized for your very special gift. We will include your name(s), along with those of other members, on a donor plaque displayed in a prominent location in our facilities. Recognition of your generosity enables others to see the importance of charitable giving to the Rush Memorial Hospital Foundation and its ability to effect the future of health care at Rush Memorial Hospital. As partners, we value your opinion and welcome your input.
